STATE CENTER COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT
SIGN LANGUAGE INTERPRETER I

DEFINITION

Under direction, provides interpreting and/or transliterating services for Deaf and or/hard of hearing students.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

This classification performs routine duties in accordance with general instructions or standard procedures. This position differs in that it is entry-level and covers only classroom and one-on-one work such as student/teacher conferences.

EXAMPLES OF DUTIES

Duties include interpreting for students in classes and class-related events; working effectively with team interpreters as assigned, including participating in mentorship support, interpreter preparation and meetings and performing related duties and responsibilities as assigned.

EMPLOYMENT STANDARDS

Education: Equivalent to High School Graduation and completion of 15 general education college units.

Experience: One year interpreting experience.

Knowledge and Abilities: Ability to adhere to the NAD/RID code of Professional Conduct. Ability to interpret from American Sign Language into English and from English into American Sign Language. Possess fluency in both expressive and receptive skills of American Sign Language and English. Ability to communicate with/relate to individual Deaf/hard of hearing people. Ability to receive and follow instructions, learn and apply college and district policies and procedures and maintain cooperative working relationships with students, staff, faculty and the public.